Institution No. 339 "Vokkettur Mallaraya Bhuta" of the old Kasargod taluk now known as "Vittal Sri Mallaraya Daiva" at Vittal of the present Puttur taluk was in receipt of a tasdik allowance of Rs. 8-8-0 as seen from the inam register of this office. The allowance was struck off the register in 1909. The order directing the strike off is not availabl

now as the connected file has been destroyed. In 1933, the trustee applied for the re-admission of the institution, but as it was reported that no services were being conducted in the institution, the petition was rejected with a direction that the petitioner might apply again after the services were re-started. The present trustee has now put in a petition stating that he has rebuilt the institution and revived the services and that the allowance may be re-admitted and the arrears paid to him.

2. Enquiry shows that the institution which had not been in proper maintenance from many years has now been re-constructed at great cost and services renewed. The petitioner has been appointed as trustee of the institution by the Hindu Religious Endowments Board in its order No.801-1 dated 23-3-1936. As the claim for payment is made only in 1938 and as no reason has been given for not claiming the allowance in the previous years, I recommend that the institution may be re-admitted with effect from fasli 1348.
